Happy 4th!2016-03-22 01:35:02 We have released a small update to the Android app. Please make sure to update your devices if you have already downloaded it. If not, consult it and let us know what you think. The application supports German and French. Comments is always welcome.2016-03-19 19:46:02 We have finally released the official Android app in the Google Play Store. You can find it by searching for 'FFXIV Clock'. Please let us know via comments or contact us page if you find any bugs or problems with it. The node information should be the last copy of the data we use on the site.2016-02-23 19:46:02 I added the 4 new items provided by users in the Disqus comments below. Smithsonian Ore - The Sea Of Clouds New Node Lumythrith Ore - The Churning Mists New Node Old-Growth Camphorwood Log - The Churning Mists New Node Frost Cotton Boll - Coerthas Western Highlands New Node Already got all the coordinates/positions for node locations. If you find they are incorrect, please let us know. Thanks!2016-01-27 20:20:02 We have added a statistical dashboard with interesting data, including the most popular items and recently updated items. Let us know what you think! FFXIVClock Dashboard2016-01-25 14:33:21 We have added a new tracking view which is an alternative to the previous view of the box. In addition, we have optimized the page for mobile and tablets. We have released mobile alerts due to mobile browsers not being very very with javascript alerts. (for example: When the phone screen goes off, the in-case stops counting and the alert is missed) We are always open to comments, so let us know what you think about Disqus or via the Contact Us page.2016-01-22 16:00:22We are pushing language support for German, French and Japanese. We've also updated a lot of items based on user submissions. Let us know by email or Disqus if you have any problems. FFXIVClock German FFXIVClock French FFXIVClock Japanese2016-01-15 12:00:00We pushed an update with some structural changes to the page. In addition, we have added all NPC Timed Final Fantasy 14 Triple Triad. We will slowly start filling in information for all items, areas and NPCs. For those unfamiliar, Triple Triad was a mini-game originally in Final Fantasy VIII. It is now playable at the Golden Saucer in Final Fantasy XIV, and players can collect their own deck of cards. Players play against NPCs to earn Gold Saucer Points (GSPs), and these gold saucer points can be used to buy more cards. Some cards can be obtained by beating NPCs, and some NPCs are only available during certain hours of Eorzea. We've added these NPCs as selectable reeparators, so I hope you won't forget to challenge them when they're ready! The following NPCs have been added to ffxiv clock: Elaisse Dominiac Voracious Vath Lanaiatte Seika Lewena Noes Noes Yellow Moon Wawalago Yayake Marielle Marcechamp Idle Imperial Trachtoum Helmhart Piralnaut Marcette Vor Heuloix Swift R'ashah R'ahiki 2019-11-10 22:12:485.1 Items addedAlso has added aetheryte slots for all Shadowbringers nodes.
