Sort by : Relevance Price Bestseller New Lo - Hey Price Hey - Lou Alphabetical A - Z Alphabetical Z - Getty/Modwedding.com Mémén Rouge Yes, Paris is a classic prom theme, but why not mix it up by making the Mén Rouge theme. Make sure you get a lot of feathers, some windmills for photo ops, and wrap the whole room in red. Your classmates will feel like they've gone back in time. Land catch all the hay bales and wildflowers you can find for your country themed ball. The whole room will look super rustic and cosy. Bonus points if you can really get the event in the barn. Enchanted Forest The key to this theme is greener, greener and greener! Make your prom venue look like a stunning enchanted forest with moss-covered floors and vines hanging from the ceiling. It should look like a fairy could fly at any moment. Decades to dance your way through the decades with this super cute prom The decorations will be so colorful and there will be tons of photo opportunities throughout the night. Of course, disco ball is a must for this issue. Oozing luxury make your classmates feel like royalty for a night with this glorious gold and diamond theme. Really go all the way with a gold color scheme, and don't skimp on all those fake diamonds. Fire and ice carrying this prom is the crash of two worlds. Ask your guests to choose a side: fire or ice, and see which theme-inspired outfits they appear to celebrate with. You probably want to get some design that fits too, like those ice blue flames. Gothic Castle Halloween may be months away, but that doesn't mean your prom night can't be wonderfully scary. Make your prom glamorous, yet absolutely terrifying with a mysterious castle theme. To bring the idea to life, you'll need Gothic design like candles, chandeliers, dusty books and some castle cutouts like this one. Around the world, tell your guests to make their passports because they're going to need a plane to get to that dance. Prom attendees will be able to travel around the world in one night with this theme around the world. One cool idea is to get to different stations where guests can pick up from different cuisines. Don't forget to decorate with travel-related items as this globe stands on its own to make the issue feel whole. Safari Take your guests on an adventure by performing your prom-themed safari. You need a lot of greenery and a piece of statement like this wild bow cut to set this issue in motion. Your guests will be able to experience the thrill of majestic animals like lions and panthers without getting too close for comfort. Disco fever make your prom night one to remember by taking your guests back in time to the era of disco. Your guests will dance all night under disco balls and on colorful floorboards. Make your subject truly authentic by asking people to come dressed in the attire of 70. Cosmic really want to turn your prom into this world? This space theme will make it look like you're in another galaxy. Hanging planets above the dance floor makes everyone feel like they're the center of the universe for the night. This amazing moon really set the scene and will shine on the prom goes throughout the night. Cruise ship wants your prom to feel like a nice night at sea without the motion sickness? This issue sails you across the ocean when you really don't leave the gym. Be sure to add an amazing background so you can enjoy sunset throughout the night! Venice Night does not need to travel to Italy to make a romantic trip in a gondola. This theme makes it easy to best picture a perfect moment like you're really in Venice. Couples will be super excited to take a picture that looks like they're riding through the Venetian canals. Neon lights it's so easy to stay with Tradition prom colors like gold, white, or black, but make your night stand out with a neon theme. The color-changing columns will certainly stand out and leave people who are waiting to take one home with them. The comic book even Peter Parker went to his prom when he was Spider-Man. That everyone would be heroes for the night with this subject that will surely distinguish your school from the others. Use these comic book bubble signs to give people a chance to add a custom touch to their photos. Diner make your prom an episode of Riverdale. Channel a retro diner theme and recreate Pop's Shoppe Chock'lit. From the illuminated signs to the rounded tablecloths, the decoration ideas are endless. Guests can also rock riverdale-inspired style for the occasion. And if your prom budget allows, you can even get a cardboard car like this for an amazing Instagram moment. Best part? You can serve chips and a milkshake! What's more romantic than colorful flowers, beautiful lights, and a dreamy pavilion? Make prom night a fairy tale with an amazing garden theme. Whether your prom is indoors or outdoors, you can decorate the area with beautiful flowers and illuminated trees. If you feel ~ sneaky ~ , string curtains and lights all over the place and create DIY floral arrangements. You can also get your hands on this gorge garden arch to evoke romance. Cloud Nine create the ultimate dream experience with a ball in the clouds. This issue is not only easy to excite, but it will be worth it. From balloons to centerpieces, use white ornaments to transform your prom venue into a magical space. Secure a moon kit and cool clouds with balloons or glittering cardboard cloud cutouts to impress your colleagues. Star night some say this subject is fundamental, but we say it's classic. Take hints from Vincent Van Gogh's original painting, and apply a blue and yellow color palette in your decorations. Decorate the place with lots of stars, lights, and moons to create a crazy romantic atmosphere. Feeling particularly fancy? Set up this magical bow at your prom to capture the best grandma. Island Getaway TBH, until prom season rolls around, you're probably so ready for summer. Get ready for your vacay island this summer and have a ball in tropical gear! Cover the place with palm trees, lawn decorations, and lots of lanterns. It'll definitely be a night to remember. Masquerade has a classic ~ mysterious ~ prom with a fancy masked ball. An 18th-century French gorge with castle decorations, chandeliers and ornate masks hung from the ceiling. Encourage everyone to rock masks by hosting a competition to see who comes up with the best (and make sure there's a big prize!). A day-to-day ball will make hairy potters' magic revealed at your school. This theme is especially perfect if your school has a winter ball, but it's also quite fun to dance the night away Magical winter décor during spring, too. Recreate the Christmas ball with ice sculptures, fake snow, and twinkling lights hanging from the walls and ceiling, creating a night sky effect just like in the Great Hall. To pull the subject together, make reservations inviting your class to Hogwarts for the night. The most important decoration? Tons of Christmas trees! Cover them with twinkling lights and fake snow to resemble the Forbidden Forest. Hollywood is worthy of a star, turning your prom into a red carpet event. Celebrate in style by creating a star background by covering the walls with black paper and decorating them with sparkling stars. Make a poster of the Hollywood sign where the paparazzi can take pictures of everyone. To make the event look particularly prestigious, cut life-size Oscar statues from cardboard and paint them gold and black to wing the entrance. You can even wrap a red satin curtain in front of the entrance where guests can walk through and feel like a star on the big night. Carnival to make the gym at the carnival school, decorate the walls with a red and blue painters ribbon to make carnival stripes. Add a popcorn bow at the entrance. For an anti-dance crowd, set up fun carnival games, like throwing a DIY ring and throwing a bean bag. Add a cotton candy stand and popcorn machine to the mix, obv.s. PARIS What better setting for prom than the most romantic city in the world? Set the perfect picture background with cardboard Eiffel Tower and string lights (or try this kit). For an even more authentic feel, decorate the room with string lights and place a golden tulle under the Eiffel Tower. Fluorescent lights If your goal for prom is to create an epic dance party, use neon dance lights to create a fun, optimistic environment. The key to moderation of this look is to have bright lighting, so you might have to get the staff out of the school play to help. Use black light to change the look of your room and create fun colored changing lights. Leave glow sticks on each table so that when it's time to hit the dance floor, everyone will have the best time to light up the room even more. Decorate the entrance with colorful balloons and neon arches. Happily ever after create a magical night with a setting that could be straight out of your beloved Disney movie. Pull up the look by decorating a castle with rose vines. You can also string white tulle from the ceiling and weave string lights through the fabric, and hang lanterns to create fake chandeliers. We promise that by the time the clock arrives at midnight (or whenever the dance is over), there will be serious romance in the air. Haunted house through ask volunteers (hey, 12th grader!) dress up in super scary costumes and set up a haunted house adjacent to the dance floor. Keep the scary atmosphere going all over the space by combining fog machines, black mirrors, giant spider webs (using ropes or cotton And a totally blackout room to amplify the spy factor. You can also add candles and scary lanterns and hang black spiders and other reptile creatures from the ceilings. Alice in Wonderland With its crazy setting and crazy characters, the Alice in Wonderland theme is the beating way to create an unforgettable prom. Recreate the Mad Hatter tea party scene with twinkling lights, Mad Hatter decorations, a rabbit the size of a life and crazy signs everywhere. Set up a garden wall with flowers for everyone to take pictures in front of. Candyland Candy Casino, candy, and more candy is what you need for this theme. Pretty amazing, isn't it? Brightly coloured candy wrappers, lollipops, and other sweet sweets will create a cheerful and fun setting for your prom - however bright the better! Build life-size sweets to use as an entrance and share giant candy candies as good ones. Under the Sea Favorite Disney Movie Is Your Whole Year Love Frozen? Or maybe your classmates were obsessed with Disney princesses in general? Do a Disney-themed prom for the most epic night ever, featuring your BFFs dressed as IRL princes and princesses.
