P.S. I love you Irish writer Cecelia Ahern's first novel, published in 2004. The book has achieved bestseller #1 status in Ireland, the United Kingdom and the United States, Germany and the Netherlands. P.S., I love you the story line is Holly and Gerry, childhood sweethearts, they could finish each other's sentences and even when they fought, they laughed. No one could have imagined Holly and Gerry without each other. Until the unthinkable happens. Gerry's death devastates Holly. But as her 30th birthday looms, Gerry comes back to her. She left her a bundle of notes, one for each of the months after her death, gently guiding Holly into her new life without her, each note signed 'PS, I love you'. As the notes are slowly opening, and as the year unfolds, Holly is both happy and challenged. The guy who knows him better than anyone sets out to teach him that life goes on. With some help from her friends, and her noisy and loving family, Holly finds herself laughing, crying, singing, dancing — and being more adventurous than ever.
