How does Scene 1 begin? Scene 1 begins at night with a conversation between Banquo and his son Fleance Name a speaker and meaning And yet I wouldn't sleep. Merciful powers, restraint in us damned thoughts that nature gives in in response Speaker: BanquoSignificance: Banquo says he can't sleep because he thinks of witches. He wants to stay awake because he's having nightmares. Name the speaker and meaning of the King abed. He's been in unusual pleasure and sent great things to your offices. This diamond he greets your wife with withal, the name of a kind of mistress, and falls silent in accordance with immeasurable content. Speaker: BanquoSignificance: Banquo says :1) the king went to bed happy and kind2) the king gave Lady Macbeth a diamond for her generosity Why is it ironic that Duncan gave Lady Macbeth a diamond for her generosity? I said ironically because we know lady Macbeth's generosity was fake, but Duncan didn't know there was something significant about the Macbeth-Banquo conversation. Banquo asks Macbeth if he thinks about witches as much as he does and Macbeth says no at all, but we know macbeth thinks a lot about witches and their prophecy. Name a speaker and meaningIf you cling to my consent when 'tis, It does you credit' Speaker: Macbeth Meaning: Macbeth tells banquo that he will take care of her if Banquo stays with him ^^How will Banquo respond to what Macbeth will tell him? Banquo says yes, but only if it is for good intentions Name the speaker and meaning Is this dagger I see in front of me a handle towards my hand? Come on, let me grab your 9th. I don't have you, and I still see you. You don't, fatal sight, do you, sensible to feel the sight? So you're just a mind dagger, a false creation that progresses from the oppressed brain of heat? I can still see you in as palpable a form as this one I'm drawing now. Macbeth says this in his monologue because he sees an imaginary dagger that leads him to Duncan's room. At the end of Macbeth's monologue, what's going on, and what's the meaning? The bell rings and that means Lady Macbeth is calling him, they need to meet to kill Duncan, the time has come. Why is Macbeth being hallucinated? Macbeth hallucinates because of his consciousness. How does Scene 2 1 end? Macbeth's monologue ACT 2 SCENE 2 How does Scene 2 begin? Scene 2 begins with Lady Macbeth saying why she couldn't kill Duncan. He had to do the dirty work. Where's Scene 2 taking place? In the castle What do we decide about Lady Macbeth in SCENE 2? Macbeth has a heart. Name the speaker and meaning What has got them drunk has made me brave, which has extinguished them have given me fire Speaker: Lady Macbeth Meaning: Drinking to give you the courage to kill Duncan What's ironic about an owl? The owl usually symbolizes peace, and there is no peace here, which is ironic. How did Lady Macbeth make sure the servants were knocked out? He drugged them Name the speaker and meaning Alack, I'm afraid they've woken up, and 'it's not ready. The attempt, not the deed, confuses us. Hark!- I finished counting their daggers; He couldn't help but notice them. If he hadn't reminded me of my father in his sleep, I wouldn't have done it. Lady Macbeth Meaning: Lady Macbeth can't commit murder because when she goes to kill him, she looks like her father, so she decides not to kill him. Macbeth enters with a bloody dagger that symbolizes what? The bloody dagger symbolizes the fact that he did an act other than blood (which is symbolic throughout the play), which is symbolic in scene 2? Owl, who are Duncan's sons? Malcolm (elder) and donalbain When Macbeth says this is a sad sight, what does he mean too? He looks at his hands because they are bloody Name the speaker and the meaning of the dream is one laughed, and one screamed Murder! That they woke each other up. I stood there and heard them. But they prayed and talked them to sleep again. Speaker: The Meaning of Macbeth: Servants Go In and Out of Consciousness: One servant must have seen what happened, Duncan's boys are in the house, too. What does the term hanged hands mean? How do Macbeth and Macbeth react? Macbeth: – worried – fear of being caught – gets crazy Lady Macbeth:- calice – don't worry – carefree Name speaker and meaning I thought I heard a voice screaming Sleep anymore! Macbeth murders a dream - an innocent dream Speaker: macbeth Meaning: guilt consumes him, he never sleeps again. What does Lady Macbeth tell Macbeth? Lady Macbeth tells him:+ Not to think about it because it makes her weak+ wash away the evidence in her hands Name speaker and meaning I will not go again. I'm afraid to think about what I've done. Look again, I don't dare. Speaker: macbeth Meaning: she regrets what happened What does Lady Macbeth do after Macbeth tells her she regrets everything and feels guilty? Lady Macbeth tells him that she is weak on purpose and then she goes to put blood on the servants to make it look like they killed Duncan's Name Speaker, Meaning & Rhetorical Device How is not with me when every voice terrifies me? What hands are there? They picked up my eyes. Will the sea of neptunus wash this blood out of my hand? No, this hand of mine prefers multitudinous sea incarnadine, makes green red. + macbeth is paranoid + macbeth is freaking out Rhetorical term is this paragraph is an implication When there is a knock What does Macbeth tell Macbeth? 1) change 2) wash your hands 3) play cool Name speaker and meaning To know that what I did was best not to know myself. Wake Duncan up by knocking. I could. Macbeth hopes the knock will wake Duncan up. Macbeth's refusal to return to Duncan's chambers echoes remorse, fear and, in particular, guilt, it shows that he wishes he had not committed that horrific act. LAZO NOTE _ MURDER IS NOT EASY UNLESS you are a PSYCHOPATH ACT 2 SCENE 3How does this scene begin? Scene 3 is a relief from murder, it starts with an ordinary man, a porter, a monologue Why does Porter talk in the pros? Porter speaks professionals because he is an ordinary man and ordinary men speak pros. Which is remarkable when Porter says but this place I should be too cold for hell The important thing is that he talks about the castle and the death inside it. What does an owl mean? Death How does the theme of anti-natural crime get stronger in this scene? This theme is reinforced by the weather and the comparison of murder with the help of an owl and a hawk. Name the speaker and meaning Will the King go from today? Speaker: LennoxSignificance: the phrase has double meaning, 1) he goes like he leaves the castle 2) he goes like he dies Name the speaker and meaning Oh horror, horror, horror! Your tongue or heart can't get pregnant or name you! MacduffSignificance: Macduff finds Duncan dead Who's the one pointing out the impemaaability of Lady Macbeth's original response? Macduff Name the speaker, meaning and rhetorical device Approach the chamber and destroy your vision with the new Gorgon. Don't let me talk. Then look and talk to me yourself. Speaker: macduffSignificance: he's absolutely terrified, the rhetorical device is allusion, with the new Gordon, Gordon is a monster who changes things to stone with eye contact. How does Lady Macbeth work? He's acting upset, not that Duncan's dead, but that there's going to be a murder in his house. Name the speaker and meaning If I had died an hour before this occasion, I would have lived a blessed time; There's nothing serious about this moment in mortality. It's all toys. Fame and mercy are dead. The wine of life is drawn, and the sheer sax is left in this vault bragging. Speaker: macbeth Meaning: Macbeth says there's no reason to live now because of what he did Who tells Donalbain and Malcolm what happened? Macbeth and macduff Name the speaker, meaning and rhetorical term OI, but still repent of my rage that I will kill them. Who can be wise, amazed, temporary and furious, loyal and impartial, in an instant? No man. The expedition of my violent love crosses the pause. Here lay Duncan, his silver skin laced with his golden blood, and his wounds looked like natural fractures toward the wasteful entrance of the ruins; There, murderers full of the colors of their profession, their daggers who were unmannered screaming gorella. Who could abstain from It was a heart to love, and in that heart the courage to make love known? Speaker: macbeth Meaning: he admits to killing Duncan and servants Rhetorical term: dramatic irony, because when he confesses, no one listens to him What does Lady Macbeth do about Macbeth's confession? Lady Macbeth pretends to faint to distract everyone from her husband's confession Where do Malcolm and Donalbain go? Malcolm= English Donalbain= Ireland What is this quote an example of? The closer to the blood, the bloodier this quote is the juxtaposition What is the dominant image in this scene, and what effect does it create? Prevailing image= end of the world Effect: horror ACT 3 SCENE 4 What is the purpose of this scene? 1) show Duncan's funeral 2) show Macbeth's coronation 3) to show that Malcolm and Donalbain are leaving Why do people suspect Malcolm and Donalbain? People suspect the brothers because as soon as they saw their dead father escaped, they fled, prompting other suspects of murder. What do owls and hawks symbolize? Owl=death/macbethFalcon=duncan Why is Duncan a hawk? Because during this time only the wealthy had hawks What is the weather act 3 SCENE 4 The weather is morning, but it is so dark that you can't tell the name speaker and meaning Hawk, tow ring in his pride of place, was mousing an owl hawk and killed. Speaker: old man Notmarked: the owl is macbeth, and the hawk is duncan, the owl stabs the hawk and kills it Name the speaker and meaning They were born. Malcolm and Donalbain, the king's two sons, are gone and fled, casting doubt on them. Speaker: macduff Meaning: he says how brothers look suspicious Name speaker and meaning Gainst nature still! A frugal ambition that shakes up your own life. Then it's like sovereignty falls over Macbeth. Speaker: RossSignificance: Macbeth's tragic flaw will be his ambition What is the real reason Macbeth killed the servants and what is the reason he gave to everyone else? The real reason: he killed the servants so they wouldn't say what happenedThen's reason:he killed the servants out of love for Duncan What's Scone and who's going there? Scone is the ancient city where the King of Scotland was crowned, Macbeth goes there Ross asks where Duncan's body is... Who answers him and what does this person say? Macduff answers him and says Duncan's body will be carried to Colmekill, who won't be attending Macbeth's coronation and why? Macduff won't be attending because he's From Macbeth, name a speaker and meaning God's benison comes with you and with those who would make up for evil and enemy lovers... Speaker: old man Meaning: the old man says the blessing of the gods goes with those who turn into good bad and turn into enemy friends, this ties to the fair are a mistake and the mistake is fair ACT 3 SCENE 1M is a tragedy? Tragedy is a serious work of drama in which a hero suffers a catastrophe or serious misfortune from his own actions Where does the beginning of Scene 1 take place? Palace Name speaker and meaning You have it now - king, Cawdor, Glamis, everything, as Weird Women promised, and I'm afraid you played the most ugly 't. But it was said that it should not stand for your posterity, but that I should be the root and father of many kings. If they become the truth (as you do, Macbeth, their speeches shine) Why can't they be my oracle too and make me wish? But quietly, not anymore. Speaker: Banquo Significance: banquo says Macbeth didn't play fair to be king, He hopes his children will be kings Why does Banquo cut off conversation with him and Macbeth? Banquo cuts the conversation short because he has to go. Macbeth keeps his enemy. ____, close Banqou Name the speaker and meaning We hear that our bloodied cousins have been given in England and Ireland, do not acknowledge their cruel parricide, fill their listeners with a strange invention Speaker: macbethSignificance: he talks about Macbeth and Donalbain, saying they say nothing about the murder of their father, which makes them look suspicious. Why is Macbeth afraid of banquo? Because banquo is wise and has a scary character Name the speaker and meaning To be this is nothing, but to be safely like this. Speaker: macbeth Meaning: he says that being king is nothing unless he is protected by the name speaker, meaning & amp; rhetorical device There is nothing but him whose creature I fear; And my genius under him is a rebuke, as they say, Mark Antony was Caesar's. He teased the sisters when they first put the king's name on me and told them to talk to him. Then, like the prophet, they called him father to the line of kings Speaker: Macbeth Meaning: he fears that the prophecy will come trueR.D= allusion because Mark Antony was Caesar's. Who's going to come after Macbeth's monologue and who are they mirroring? Murderers step in and mirror Lady Macbeth Explain conversation macbeth and murderers have 1) Macbeth tells them to kill banquo and fleancen2) Macbeth makes them blame banquo for their suffering 3) Macbeth is now a manipulator Why do murderers decide to make a plan? Because Macbeth said they'd be in his good graces if they named a speaker and meaning that use our health, but in his life, which in his death was perfect. Macbeth says he's sick and he'll feel better when Banquo's dead. Lady Macbeth, why can't Macbeth kill Banquo? Because they have mutual friends When does Macbeth want murderers to act? Tonight, name a speaker and meaning Your spirits will shine out of you. In this hour, I advise you to plant yourself, to introduce yourself to the perfect spy era, the moment with a t, because you must not do this evening and something about the palace; I've always thought I needed clarity. Fleance, his son, who keeps him company, whose absence is not as important to me as his father, must embrace the fate of that dark time. Solve yourself apart. I'll come to you. Speaker: macbeth Significance:1) macbeth says plan2) According to Macbeth, there can be no doubt that he was part of this 3) Macbeth tells them to kill also fleance ACT 3 SCENE 2 How does this scene begin? This scene begins with a conversation between Lady Macbeth and a servant What does Lady Macbeth tell the servant? Lady Macbeth tells the servant that she needs to talk to her husband What does Lady Macbeth tell her husband? Lady Macbeth tells her husband she's not happy and sorry Why does Lady Macbeth feel dissatisfied and remorseous? Lady Macbeth takes this view because she thinks it is the way she got there that makes her unhappy name a speaker and meaning like destroying an outfit in uncertain joy... Speaker: Lady macbeth Meaning: she wonders if she may not be happy because of how she got there Name the speaker and meaning of the obliging fantasies your partners do, using those thoughts that should really have died with those they think? Speaker: Lady macbeth Meaning: she says Macbeth is too caught up in her own thoughts What would Macbeth rather do than tolerate torture? How's Macbeth? Macbeth feels uneasy, he can't get enough sleep Name speaker, meaning & amp; rhetorical termAnd so I pray to be you. Let your memories touch Banquo; give him Excellency with both an eye and a tongue: unsafe while we must cease our glory in these flattering streams and make our faces vibrate in our hearts, enlisting what they are. Speaker : macbeth Meaning: he tells her to be a particularly nice banquo because she wants to keep her enemies close to R.D = dramatic irony because we know she sent people to kill banquo, but Lady Macbeth is ignorant What does Macbeth say her mind is full of? Scorpions Why have Lady Macbeth and Macbeth changed roles? They've changed roles because now he's more manipulative than he was and now he's more ignorant of what's going on, how he was the name of the Speaker and You're wondering what I'm talking about, but keep you where you are. If you did it, you're the No. Speaker: macbethSignificance: he tells them they're the best cutthroatsR.D= dramatic irony because we know they're not the best because they let fleas go What does Macbeth tell the murderer when he sees banquous blood on his face? Macbeth tells him that he'd rather see blood on his face than in his vengeance, because that would mean he's alive when Macbeth heard the flea escaped what he feels? Macbeth says he fears again Name the speaker and meaning: Safe in the ditch he offers, with 20 trenchèd gashea in his head, the least death to nature. The murdererSignificance says macbeth is dead, safe in a ditch and was brutally killed Who does Macbeth compare to snakes? Banquo and fleance Name a speaker, meaning and research and development: Here was our country's honorary ceiling now if the honorable person of our Banquo were present, whom I would rather challenge for unfriendliness than pity for rudeness. Speaker: macbeth Meaning: Macbeth says he hopes banquo is gone because of rudeness and not because something bad has happened to himR.D= dramatic irony because we know he's gone because he's dead When Macbeth sees a ghost, what does he lose? Macbeth loses his grip on reality Name speaker and meaning: Sit down, worthy friends. My lord is often like this and has been from his youth. You, stay where you are. The fit is instantaneous; the idea that He's fine again. If you take note of him, you'll insult him and expand his passion. Feed him and don't keep him. (Pulling Macbeth aside.) Are you a man? Speaker: Lady macbethSignificance: she tells everyone not to worry that she is behaving because of the illness she was born with, but then she had emasculated him quickly after what Lady Macbeth can deduce from his behavior?
