Rosario a san charbel

Coronilla de San Charbel Ver: Vida de San Charbel La coronilla consists of five groups of beads: three red, one white and one blue. Five black beads separate the groups. The Saint's Medal combines the crown with a white account. Recitation order: At the beginning of the Crown, the first white report recites the prayer: To the Father of Truth. It is the most beautiful and expensive prayer of the Maronite Mass. It is a poem by S. Jacobo de Sarug from the 5th century. Take it, Father, since you have died for me. This is his Blood shed on Golgotha for my salvation. He cries for me. On his merits accepts my oblation. Being so many of my sins is much greater, it is your mercy. When placed on a scale, your mercy exceeds the weight of the great mountains, those that only you know. Ponder sin and ponder ate; victim of the Victim exceeds the debts. Your Favorite Son has suffered nails and throws him for my sins, which is why he satisfies my debt and gives me life with his sufferings. Glory to the Father who sent his Son out of us. The adoration of the Son who redeemed everything by crucifixion. Glory to the Spirit for whom the mystery of our salvation has been consumed. Blessed is the one who lived us, for His Love. For Him to be glory! In each black account, recite our Father. Red accounts represent vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. The virtues by which the nuns connect with the ordaus of Christ. In the first group of red accounts recite three Hail Mary in honor of S. Charbel's fidelity to his vow of poverty. In the second group of red accounts recite three Hail Mary in honor of Sr. Charbel's fidelity to his vow of chastity. In the third group of red accounts recite three Hail Mary in honor of Sr. Charbel's faithfulness to his vow of obedience. White beads symbolize the devotion of St. Charbel to the Holy Eucharist. We pray that through his intercession we may grow in love with Jesus the Eucharist. Three Hail Marys are prayed. The blue beads symbolize the love and devotion that St. Charbel had to Ntra. Stsma. Mother. May we, through her intercession, grow in devotion to Our Lady. Three Hail Marys are prayed. Finish the crown, in the Medal S. Mark it, with prayer, to get special thanks. Prayer: God infinitely holy and glorified in your saints, you inspired St. Charterbel to lead a life of perfect unity with the Son Jesus Christ, according to the Gospel, and participate in the world through heroically living monastic virtues: poverty, obedience and purity, give us, we pray to you, grace to love you and serve you by His example. The Lord Almighty God, you who el poder de la intercesión de San Chârbel a través de sus numerosos milagros y favores, como la conversión concédenos hoy la gracia que imploramos.... por su poderosa intercesión. Amén. Coroncina di San Charbel with colored round glass grains listed on the silver brass chain and the San Charbel medal. The miracles that are involved in the intercession of this great Saint Thaumaturgus of the Maronic Church are great. HOW TO RECITE CORONCINA: ON THE FIRST WHITE GRAIN (near the coin), recite the following prayer: Father of Truth, behold your Son, welcome the sacrifice. Take it, Father, because he died for me. Behold, his blood shed on Golgotha will intercess for my salvation. He accepts my offer on his own. If I have a lot of sin, your mercy is much greater! If you want to measure it, its weight exceeds the weight of the mountains that only you know. Look at the sins and watch the Holocaust, which is offered in reparation. The Holocaust and the Victim are much greater than mistakes. Your love son lifted his nails and roamed him for my sins. His sufferings can reassure you and on my own merits that I can have life. Glory to the Father, who through our reason sent his Son into the world, adoration to the Son, who with his crucifixion freed us and glorified the Holy Spirit, for whom the mystery of redemption arose. Blessed be he who has given us life with his Love. Let it be glory to him! ON BLACK WHEAT: Our Father... ON THE FIRST GROUP OF RED GRAINS: 3 Hail Mary in honor of the fidelity of St. Charbel to his vow of poverty. ON BLACK WHEAT: Our Father... ON THE SECOND GROUP OF RED GRAINS: 3 Hail Mary in honor of the fidelity of St. Charbel to his vow of purity. ON BLACK WHEAT: Our Father... ON THE THIRD GROUP OF RED GRAINS: 3 Hail Mary in honor of the fidelity of St. Charbel to his vow of obedience. ON BLACK WHEAT: Our Father... ON THE GROUP OF WHITE GRAINS: 3 Hail Mary in honor of the faithfulness of St. Charbel to the Holy Eucharist. Let us ask that, through his intercession, love for the Eucharist may grow in us. ON BLACK WHEAT: Our Father... ON THE GROUP OF BLUE GRAINS: 3 Hail Mary in honor of the love and devotion of St. Charbel to the Blessed Virgin Mary. We ask that, through his intercession, we increase our devotion to the Blessed Virgin. CONCLUDE WITH A PRAYER TO SAINT CHARBEL: O great thaumaturgical St. Charbel who spent his life alone in a humble and hidden hermitage, renouncing the world and his vain pleasures, and now reigns in the glory of the Saints, in the splendor of the Most Holy Trinity, interceded for us. Enlighten us mind and heart, increase our faith, and strengthen our will. Increase our love for God and neighbor. Help us do good and avoid evil. Defend us from visible and invisible and salvage enemies throughout our lives. You who do miracles for those who call you and receive the healing of countless evils and the solution of problems without human hope, look upon us with mercy, and if it is in accordance with God's will and our greatest good, gain from God the grace we ask for..., but above all you help us to follow your holy and virtuous life.
