Skotýt visu brought us into the deep freeze of winter with our March weather and our family needed a good distraction to stretch our legs and have fun together. Midweek travel The laser tag in Gaithersburg was just the transition we were looking for. The new facility is full of family fun and was empty on Wednesday night. In fact, we had all the places to ourselves. The main attraction here is the black lightraser tag course. Each participant wears a gear with a light vest and laser shooter and watches a short video of the rules before loosening up in a castle-themed arena. I've never played laser tag before I can't compare it to other places, but this was fun! Each match lasts 12 minutes. The stadium has two castle structures with ramps flowing up and down, a hiding place and plenty of space to run around. In addition to being a great family night, it was a great workout! We played two games and when we were done with time we were all happy and tired. The price for laser tags is $7.95 for one game, $14.95 for two games and $20.95 for three games. There are currently deals for weekday visits to both Certifikid and Groupon – $19 for two games for two people and $35 for two games for four people. In addition to laser tags, there is an arcade and a high rope course. Arcade games range from 50 cents to $2.00 per game. The $5.00 game card bought us 4 Skee Ball games and 2 games down clowns. The game can only be accessed with a swipe card and all tickets obtained are recorded electronically on the card. Our 6 games netted us a hatkey sack for plastic balls and merchandise. We didn't try the ropes course during our visit. Rope course tickets cost $9.95 for a single session, $18.95 for a double session and $26.95 for a triple session. Castle Laser Tag serves a snack bar with hot dogs, pizza, nachos and drinks. There are also many family-friendly restaurants in the Kentland area, such as Baha Fresh and Five Guys. Birthday party packages are available on both weekdays and weekends. Castle laser tags are only open From Wednesday to Sunday. On weekdays, opening hours are 4-10p.m; weekend hours are 11a.m to 11p.m. You can reserve spots for laser tags online in specific time slots. This may be a good idea for a weekend visit but we had no problem displaying it without a reservation for weeks. There is no age limit on the website, but activities are best for children 6 years of age and older. The course is very dark and the vests are a little heavy, so small children or those who are afraid of the dark may not enjoy their time here. We had a blast and are looking forward to returning soon! Photo by Kim Engstrom Engstrom.
