Talking Back: A Monastic Handbook for Combating Demons

According to Evagrius of Pontus (), one of the greatest spiritual directors of ancient monasticism, the monk should talk back to demons with relevant passages from the Bible. His book lists over thoughts or circumstances in which the demon-fighting monk might find himself, along with the biblical passages with which the monk should respond. According to Evagrius of Pontus (), one of the greatest spiritual directors of ancient monasticism, the monk should talk back to demons with relevant passages from the Bible. His book Talking Back (Antirrhêtikos) lists over thoughts or circumstances in which the demon-fighting monk might find himself, along with the biblical passages with which the monk should respond. This is more than a "Monastic Handbook for Combating Demons"; it's a manual of using scripture against certain thoughts that go against spiritual holiness. The thoughts are related to the 8 vices: Gluttony, Fornication, Money, Sadness, Anger, Listlessness, Vainglory, & Pride.
