Jul 20, Marian-Cristian Rotariu rated it did not like it. I regret I have read this book. It is so large that it has a lot Karma and Reincarnation: Unlocking Your 800 Lives to Enlightenment contradictory ideas.

Not to say that some of the ideas inside seem childish and stupid, the fruit of the wild imagination of these two authors. I simply recommend to avoid reading this book and all the other books written by Barbara Martin. Mar 28, tatianasnasally rated it Karma and Reincarnation: Unlocking Your 800 Lives to Enlightenment was ok Shelves: philosophymetaphysicsspirituality.

It felt more like a hypothetical tale, discussed from someone who had little concrete evidence to Karma and Reincarnation: Unlocking Your 800 Lives to Enlightenment their theories.

The author throws in many ideas, some relevant and interesting and others that just make absolutely zero sense. But when the discussion sifted to the macrocosm, such as the Karma of race and the world, the author needed to do a little more research or con Underwhelming.
