I have read several books by this author, I found the first half more interesting than the latter. No idea why but I grew a little impatient with the rest of the book. I really do appreciate what the author shares, I hope to explore his other books.

Why I Choose this Book: Well, the title should be a sufficient explanation. That, by the way, is my big take-away from the book.

I have a hard time slowing down and spending time listening for God's voice. My imagination is so active that I have a hard time clearing it of activity to just be still, but that is something I'm working on. In the past I've prayer journaled a lot which really helps me to keep focus.

Because of a wrist injury though, I haven't done as much journaling or typing in the last few months, and so I'd been just praying instead of prayer journaling. Going back to prayer journaling something this book encouragedwas helpful Hearing Gods Voice Today: Practical Help for Listening to Him and Recognizing His Voice I realized how much I've missed it. Goll's writing style is quite practical and easy to understand.

The way he talks about God was really encouraging. It's obvious he views God with reverence, Hearing Gods Voice Today: Practical Help for Listening to Him and Recognizing His Voice also sees Him as a loving Friend and Father. In fact, he refers to God multiple times as "Papa God" which I really liked. Goll is personable in the book, sharing some of the things he struggled with, as well as times God worked through him. Conclusion: The book was easy-to-understand, challenging, practical, and a very worth-while read.

Plus, the cover is beautiful, which is a plus. I happily recommend it. Constant chatter, high decibels of music, non-stop news and entertainment are what our ears are accustomed to.

This sad truth is that this is not what God intends and promises. God spoke, He speaks and will always speak. Once you read it, you will thirst for a deep and intimate relationship with God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

James Goll puts all doubts to rest by first revealing the multiple ways that God speaks to His people and an idiot-proof way to discern the multi-faceted voice of God.

I finally understood why God ensured His voice was never stereotypical, for in His love for me, he uses different ways to open up my mind and heart to hear Him and grow in relationship with Him. What grabbed me was how God uses circumstances to speak to us.

The closed and open doors in our lives are the voice of God ringing out loud and clear for those of us who are deaf to His gentle speech.

I found the truths highlighted in the book profoundly simple but so invaluable. God is so gracious, He speaks to us in 3 unique relationships. To know each is a gift — a treasure of immeasurable value.

The book dwells on each relationship. I resonated completely with the teaching that the voice of God changes even our circumstances, from barren to fruitful. We can come to His throne of grace, but we should be ready to have our Hearing Gods Voice Today: Practical Help for Listening to Him and Recognizing His Voice zones dethroned.

The enemy uses traps that can rob us of the message. Pay special attention to the trap of pride, presumption, missed timing and confusion to spare yourself this misery. Aug 05, Jim Rickard rated it it was amazing. Good lessons to apply to one's life This was a good book to read on hearing from God and applying it to your life.
