Harry Dent, Jr is an economist with that global view. For me this was a bit too much filled with graphs, charts, data, but I did pick up a number of good take-aways from it.

Dent has much to offer and I have to agree on a number of his points. He also suggests that small businesses like me need to develop a clear definition of my customers and realize that it is NOT what I think I do for them, but what customers get from me that has meaning.
