Cyanide Cyanide and Happiness: Bk. 2: Ice Cream and Sadness Happiness is a webcomic and animated series hosted on Explosm. According to Wikipedia<sup>[3]</sup> Kris Wilson began drawing comics by hand at the age of 16 when he was staying home while suffering from an illness.

After he began making comics on the computer, he initially uploaded them to his personal website Comicazi. Matt Melvin later announced his departure from the group on August 12, due to differing views about the future direction of the comic. Explosm admins have occasionally allowed readers to submit content to be featured on the site, which included flash movies by the Ultimate Showdown Ultimate Destiny animator Shawn Vulliez. The site also contains flash animation movies, humor articles, a web forum and a merchandise store.

The Explosm team have created their own flash Cyanide and Happiness: Bk. 2: Ice Cream and Sadness videos as well, which have been uploaded to the video sharing website YouTube[8] the animation website Newgrounds [9] and have been hosted on their own website explosm

These would often run anywhere from 15 seconds to 4 minutes in length and featured parodies on scenarios and stories such as Pinocchio, cliff climbing, and seashells. The videos would often contain Easter egg endings after the credits. As of November many of the videos have received upwards of around 7 million views on YouTube, with an average of 2 million within the first week of posting.

As promised, Season 1 Episode 1 titled "A Day At The Beach" was launched on their YouTube channel November 13th below right and was featured a day earlier on their website for season pass holders. On January 19th, a collection of Cyanide and Happiness comics was published in a self-titled book. On October 28th, an official Cyanide and Happiness iPhone app was released on the iTunes App Store [10] which received a rating of four stars.

According to Wikipedia [3] the site received over a million daily visitors in November of As of May 3rd, Explosm holds an Alexa [4] rank of 2, a Compete [5] rank of 13, and a Quantcast [6] rank of 15.
