I forced myself for Burn After Writing years to make an effort but I just never could. The prompts made it easier for me to know what to write. I really had to dig deep for this one. Alone in Burn After Writing room, I still found myself looking behind my shoulders to make sure no one could see what I was writing. It took my longer than expected to finish this book. I hid the book as soon as I was finished; unsure if it was because I was scared someone would find it or because of the shock and slight shame of the honesty in my answers.

I just Burn After Writing all my answers over again and now I really do understand the title. That person is not me anymore. I found this book randomly at a Five Below store. It was a great book for journaling. It helped me learn about myself and what my passions and future goals are to focus on.

The book covered real, thought-provoking and funny Burn After Writing to things from your past, present and future. Great easy journaling book to learn about yourself. Aug 20, Anne rated it it was amazing. Het boek staat vol met verschillende vragen over verschillende aspecten van het leven.

Iedere pagina is uniek en hierbij vergt de ene pagina meer tijd en inspanning dan de ander.

Questions are very thought provoking but to read the way the author write reminds me of how i answer things when half a sleep.

It feels like its going somewhere and drops off to something basic and untrue. Like, it feels very contrived. That isnt even true. Dec 11, Elliot Burns rated it really liked it Shelves: learn-shitgayyyyyy. This book was a journey of self-discovery. It was different altogether to see how one takes on the idea of a confessional that no one but yourself sees. To me, it Burn After Writing like a diary, but you know what to write. It was fun to read and write, and it was a cleansing experience.

I think and Burn After Writing am that doing this once a year on your birthday is a delightful idea. I recommend this to anyone ever. Because no one truly knows exactly who they are.
