This is a channelled work from Kryon, who is the Magnetic Master from the Great Central Sun, which is a metaphor for "the center core of the love of God. He does say towards the end of the last channeling in the book - "Instead it's a piece of God that you become.

Have you ever felt this OUR relationship? Though this is Book 11, it is my first Kryon book I never seem This is a channelled work from Kryon, who is the Magnetic Master from the Great Central Sun, which is a metaphor for "the center core of the love of God.

Though this is Book 11, it is my first Kryon book I never seem to get hold of books in the proper order. It came to me serendipitously or synchronistically, if you will in that I asked my MAP team see the book of the same name by Machaelle Small Wright or my review of it for information about MAP for help in dissolving an energetic shield or armour which hinders me from feeling my emotions, feeling my heart.

Then this book suddenly came to me from the library out of dozens I had ordered. And in the first channeling in the book which took place in July Kryon informs Kryon 11 Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse that among those either present in the hall or Kryon 11 Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse the book there is no time where Kryon abides so he's aware of everything that happens in what Kryon 11 Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse us is the past.

I didn't think more about this. When I subsequently went on to read from another book, a rush of love began to flow through my heart. This was a wonderful feeling, and I am greatly thankful for Kryon 11 Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse experience. This opening proved merely to be the beginning of a sequence of amazing insights and discoveries.

I can't promise that all readers of this channeling will experience the same or anything like it, but this is what I experienced. So you can understand that I believe in Kryon! Kryon says that we humans are all angels. Each of us and God are one - a divine partnership.

What is going on at present is a battle between the old energy and the new. A great shift is before us and it is taking us "into the middle of The New Jerusalem" - peace on Earth. We lightworkers are "lighthouses" who stand firm and shine our light in the midst of the storm - "Even my small efforts will create an energy that is larger than I can Kryon 11 Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse, combined with others, to create peace on Earth. All that "died" in these events volunteered to do so before their birth.

We are all greatly loved, and all of us here at this time chose to be here, for it is a wondrous time where we are rapidly approaching our goal, and we all have our part to play. The consciousness of mankind has already developed vastly. The revolutions occurring as I write this - in February - in Kryon 11 Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse, Libya and Tunisia are due to this development in consciousness - we will no longer accept tyranny but will overthrow those representing the old energy.

Note that this is my personal remark, since these specific events are not referred to in the channellings. Africa will be transformed and AIDS cured. This IS predicted by Kryon. The Armageddon prophesied both in the Bible and by Nostradamus and expected to occur at the end of the last century did not appear. The planet has increased its vibration much faster than expected, and this development on the part of us humans together with what Kryon terms the Harmonic Convergence in changed all this.

We are provided with much valuable information about the Jewish race - "they carry the core of the seed of humanity" and reincarnate time and time again as Jews.

Read the book for further information. The book also contains much exciting data about our DNA, the Akash and much much else. Read it and find out. I now can't wait to read all the other Kryon books. I strongly recommend this one.

I would give it ten stars if I could. Jan 29, Tom Marple rated it it was amazing. This was the first Kryon book that I have read. I find that it has helped me to see things multidimensional.

It goes a long way towards helping me see how the heavenlies see the creation and what our part is to play in the grander scheme of things. It has helped me see just how much we are loved and needed as we have a great part to play with the shift going on our our imminent ascension process unfolding. I have read much on this subject and this is one of the better ones. Oct 17, edina murakozy rated it it was amazing. Always love to read - always realize there is more to learn, to see, to feel.

There he was, frantically playing a difficult passage, but no sound! It was surreal, not audio, but the sound of her fingers tapping the keys in front of that huge audience.

He, moreover, could hear him perfectly in glorious stereo, for its auriculares! His eyes closed and was concentrating on the moment-a moment of virtuosity and passion, with its piano swaying from the force of their interpretation of the unstable platform on which we were placed.

But the audience did not hear anything but the pounding of your fingers and the cracking of the deck. I had to get out of my chair and interrupted slow to re-start and put the sound correctly. I'll tell you what happened right at the end of the workshop see "In Gap"Later in this chapterbut this particular meeting was a unique surprise.

I've had many interruptions before and know what to do. But never before had someone decided to go on stage during the meeting and begin to channel its own entity in a language that was a combination of German and English. Since then, the audience did not know and thought that it was part of our program. It was not, and this happened while I was at the lectern. Was giving a conferenceConference and about to present to Todd Kryon 11 Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse, when suddenly a man came down the hall from where I sat, went up the scalegrill the stage, sat facing the audience and began to channel!

There I was on the stand, with a guy who did not know, sitting in my own chair to channel a few inches from me, and channeling. Moreover, its message was anti-American!

Uff What? His microphone was connected, which was also strange. But the crew thought he was part of the program and had connected sigh. I spoke from the lectern and told the audience that this was not part of our presentation, but he continued. What worried me was the Event inconvenient, nothing more.
