True, there have been outstanding praying saints over the centuries. By no means do we forget them or the tremendous history-changing role they played through prayer.

Thank God for James, the half-brother of Jesus, who spent the latter years of his life praying for the churches God was raising up. When he died and his body was prepared for burial, Touch the World Through Prayer was found that his knees were so calloused from hours Touch the World Through Prayer hours of kneeling that they almost resembled the knees of a camel.

He became known as 'Camel-knees. Thank God for Brainerd, missionary to Touch the World Through Prayer American Indians, and his life of prayer and tears.

Thank God for 'Praying Hyde,' the missionary to India, who was perhaps the greatest prayer warrior of this century. But God does not depend solely on a few staunch saints.

He has planned for ordinary Christians like you and me to become mighty in prayer for the blessing and salvation of people and the Touch the World Through Prayer of Christ's harvest among the nations today. There is no reason in the world why you cannot become so steadfast in your personal prayer life that Christ will count on you to help build His church Touch the World Through Prayer advance His kingdom in many parts of the world.

Beginning with your family, your church, and your community, you can play a significant part through normal daily prayer that will make a difference, even in distant lands. Again and again God has used persons like you and me to help Him meet special emergency prayer needs on a particular day or occasion. When He calls on someone for this special and temporary role, He usually selects one of His children who has been praying faithfully and consistently.

You don't have to spend hours each day to qualify for God's prayer army. Thank God for those who can and do pray like that. But He knows the limitations of your own situation, your schedule, your home and employment responsibilities. His plan is intended to add a whole new dimension to your prayer life.

Whether you are a business executive or a housewife, a factory worker or a student, a layman or a minister of the gospel God desires for you to begin a thrillingly new and more effective life of prayer. I do not claim to have a magic formula to transform you into a spiritual giant overnight.

But I do want to point out the possibilities of this simple plan as Touch the World Through Prayer in the Bible. You can have new power and effectiveness in prayer.

You can play a significant part in Christ's plan. You can be the praying person God wants you to be you can, if you will. Will you try? God's Wonderful Plan for You God has great expectations for you and me. He has every right. The average person has more ability to influence others today than ever before. This is especially true for Christians.

Billy Graham has said he would rather be alive today than to have lived when Jesus was on earth. I fully agree. The average Christian can have a greater influence for God than the average Christian of any previous generation. This is an exciting time in our history. More believers are living today than at any other time. Christ's church has spread into more areas of the world, praises God each week in more languages, and is witnessing to or is in contact with more people than ever before.

There are more gospel workers, more local churches, more Bible training institutions, more Christian organizations, and more missionary societies. Through the tremendous media of radio, television, and literature we have the facilities to speed up God's work beyond anything we have yet known. We can reach the farthest nations more quickly, we can present the gospel in more languages, and we have the means to recruit and guide prayer for the whole world more efficiently.

We can reach our world, if we will. The greatest lack today is not people or funds. The greatest need is prayer.

Without increasing the number of Christian workers or their financial support, we could see multiplied results if we would only multiply prayer. Prayer is the greatest resource of the church.

It is the most effective means of preparing the way of the Lord available Touch the World Through Prayer us as Christians today. You yourself can influence more people for God and have a greater Touch the World Through Prayer in advancing Christ's cause by prayer than in any other way.

It is not the only thing you must do, but it is the greatest thing you can do. It has often been said, The Devil trembles when he sees God's weakest child upon his knees.

If that is true, think what could happen if every Christian really took his prayer role seriously and began to pray regularly and specifically, uniting with thousands or millions of others, all praying for the same priority needs around the world.

Duewel's passion for prayer is evident in his writing and highly contagious. I find myself taking issue with his declaration in several parts of the book that God or Jesus needs us to do such and such, because my understanding is that God doesn't need anything or any help from anyone.

That God uses us Touch the World Through Prayer instruments to accomplish his will is an example of his grace to us. Prayer is an important part of God's work This book is packed with reasons and practical tips Touch the World Through Prayer becoming a prayer Touch the World Through Prayer.

Prayer is an important part of God's work in and through us, and God chooses to act in response to his children's prayers, but I would stop short of saying that he needs us to pray. Other than that, I would recommend this book for anyone who wants to become more motivated to pray.
