There are a lot of books about dating out there. This is the one that helped me gain an advantage.

No, it didn't teach me cool pick-up lines or tell me which perfume has the scent to drive a guy wild. Instead, it helped me discover my most important asset I began to focus on what's good about me instead of my flaws. I stopped seeing the first date as that one and only event that would make or break my future.

I got out of the cycle of being desperate for a date and learned that there are some dates I should say an emphatic "no!"

With the help of this book, I learned how to become a more confident, passionate, approachable person across the board, not just when I'm on a date.

Yes, the tips about relationships are really great. Yes, they will help you get that important phone call after the first date. The thing I appreciate the most is getting to see my life, and love, through a new and better lens. Un libro molto utile. Da leggere! I read this book in college.
