This changed my opinion of Mr. Hagee irrevocably! It's amazing that someone as doctrinally unsound has the large following that he does. He asserts that the Jews basically get a free pass from God because of the divine origins of the Jewish nation.

He dismisses large passages of the book of Romans as a Jewish "codicil" Jerusalem Countdown apparently has limited application to us Christians! The editor should be Jerusalem Countdown I also found a glaring math mistake. I read it to the cover waiting for some kind of rational resolution but was sorely disappointed! I can't think about this book without righteous anger rising up in response to Hagee's heresies!

I need to stop before I type something I will regret View all 4 comments. May 14, Chad rated it it was amazing. All who try to move it will injure themselves. Jan 30, Katie rated it really liked it Shelves: god. Contains a LOT of Jerusalem Countdown history, which is very Jerusalem Countdown. Jun 28, Suzanne rated it liked it. Lot's of information, need Jerusalem Countdown put it down once in a while to absorb and understand everything!!

Very good so far!! Nov 15, Chad Brady rated it really liked it. A little dated, wrote circahowever the message and the warning contained in the book is relevant up to this very day! Do not sleep on the threat to Christians and to Israel in the Middle Jerusalem Countdown As Christians we cannot turn our back on the Jews and to Israel Jerusalem Countdown face certain destruction at the second coming of Christ! The threat of radical Islamic terrorism to our very existence, and w must meet it head on in Jerusalem Countdown Middle East or face it on our front doorstep!!!

Mar 25, Pam Funke rated it liked it. Wasn't exactly what I thought it was going to be. Slightly disappointed. So far so good, I haven't Jerusalem Countdown it all yet but its very interesting. Too little or too much knowledge can be dangerous. Jerusalem Countdown though this book is dated, I thought it would be an interesting read to gain historic perspective. But what I encountered was a lot of untruth. I am by no means a Biblical scholar, but I have enough knowledge to know that much of what Hagee Jerusalem Countdown preaching was more like bending the truth to fit his world perspective.

While some of the information was actually correct, I ended up doing some research to verify the doubts that I had, not only Too little or too much knowledge can be dangerous. While some of the information was actually correct, I ended up doing some research to verify the doubts that I had, Jerusalem Countdown only about the content of the book but also about the author.

I rarely don't finish a book, because Jerusalem Countdown I start it, I have disciplined myself to finish reading it. This one literally went in the trash when I finished it. Feb 22, Wayne Pelren rated it really liked it.

Very good. Some of the data is a bit behind current events now, but the information is solid and will work itself out according to the bible. A good resource in following the Middle East current events. Sep 13, Jared rated it did not like it Shelves: religion You can at least make some of those Jerusalem Countdown in the realm of theology, but the first third of the work is pretty secular and deserves much logic than it received.

At the Jerusalem Countdown of the day I agree that Israel is "special" and Iran is evil; but if I had only Pastor Hagee's arguments to stand on I would pretty pretty shallow! I know, I know It makes sense to me, because, Jerusalem Countdown I've always loved the Jews Apr 20, Cheryl Jerusalem Countdown it really liked it. I always enjoy John Hagee books and videos.

He always has great historical context about the Jews and how it relates to America and Jerusalem Countdown. That is the case with this book. Good info and biblical reasoning. The great thing is how his opinions of future political changes as written in are today truth actually occurred as speculated. Jul 24, Brady rated it did not like it Recommends it for: No one. I was curious about the topic of applying current events to the future events predicted by the Bible.

I cannot in good conscience recommend this book to anyone and I regret that I stuck with it to the end. Jerusalem Countdown of pure fictional guesswork for content, the writing style was simply poor. Enough Said. Feb 03, Natasha rated it it was amazing. A Jerusalem Countdown and informative "eschatology" book!

Excellent information in regards to the current issues in the Middle East. One of the most educating books I've ever read! Apr 29, Jenn rated it liked it. Talks about history of Isalm and current events happening in the Middle East. Also talks about religious prophesies. I read the book but am not sure. Rev Hagee is too pro Israel.

I'm not a Christian but I'm willing to suspend disbelief for the sake of a good script. Show me Jesus turning water into wine or raising the dead, and if it's presented well and is well-intentioned, I'll buy it the way I'll buy a trip into the future or a haunted house.

And I wanted to like this movie because I do believe in Jerusalem Countdown the world against those who believe that the worse it gets for ordinary people, the better it is for the cause of some self-righteous violent anti- Western revolution. But the conviction with which the characters-- and even the government-- are shown to accept Biblical prophecies, and not just the prophecies themselves but a particular leap of interpretation regarding the prophecies, doesn't get sold here.

It's just stated. The action sequences are fine, but a little time Jerusalem Countdown have been sacrificed Jerusalem Countdown some explanation of a convincing, reasonably detailed parallel between prophecy and reality, and if that parallel doesn't exist in the real world as I think it doesn't then reality could have been fictionalized a little.

Maybe the problem is that the movie didn't want to obviously fictionalize because it didn't want to look as if the point of view it promotes is based on a fiction. Did You Know?
