The book is simply realistic and set in the place i was grown up. The umbrella is the prettiest in the village and the whole village envies Binya for having. This book is set in the hills of Garhwal and being Indian myself, it was very interesting to read about the atmosphere and Indian culture. At first I had rated this 4 stars, but then I realized there was no reason for me to rate it lower so it's a 5 star now! This is extremely short to write a proper review, but I enjoyed every bit of this book.

There is also a simple message about being kind to others and not being jealous. Would highly recommend the book, especially for Indians.
